

Jung in Europa

Documentary, portraits

Format: Documentary. Language not scripted but controlled.
Target group: Students from 14 and adults. From lower intermediate.
Total running time: 60 minutes; 6 programs x 10 minutes.
Additional material: Transcripts, teacher's guide, Photos and subtitled version. (German).
Target language used only.

An inspiring and stimulating series in German

This is a new, modern and up-to-date documentary series, showing real life for German-speaking young people in Europe: they live in Germany (Hamburg and Berlin), Austria, Switzerland, Liechtenstein and Italy (South Tyrol). Our main persons have all exciting interests and hobbies.

Every programme starts with an introduction about the area we are in.

Sandra from Hamburg

Student of medicine at the University of Hamburg.

Björn from Vienna, Austria

Inline-skating student at the Bundesgymnasium Bertha von Suttner, which is a ship on the Danube.

Christiane from Berlin

Likes painting, influenced by pop art, and attends the Berliner Schule für Schauspiel.

Peter from Brixen, Italy

Accomplished soccer-player and brilliant snowboarder.

Nina from Luzern, Switzerland

Announcer of youth programs at Radio 3fach, takes lessons in modern dancing and attends a youth-club.

Baris from Liechtenstein

Promising kick-boxer who takes saxophone lessons and has started a band.